FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOURTH LANE TO OPEN FRIDAY ON PACIFIC COAST HIGHWAY

LOS ANGELES – Pacific Coast Highway (Route 1) is scheduled to open to four lanes of traffic on Friday, April 15. Work to repair a slide on the hillside above the highway will continue, however, including installation of mesh netting for slope stabilization.

While work continues, it might be necessary to close lanes temporarily to move equipment and perform various other tasks. Motorists are advised that intermittent delays are still possible and to drive with caution.
